2016 South Jordan Corporate Citizen Award

SOUTH JORDAN, UT –South Jordan City is pleased to present the 2016 South Jordan Corporate Citizen Award to Harmons Neighborhood Grocer.

The South Jordan Corporate Citizen Award is presented annually to a business that has been an active partner within the community. South Jordan City recognizes the importance of its relationship with the business community and appreciates the contribution made by companies that took a chance and pioneered their business venture within the city.

“On behalf of the City, we would like to thank Harmons for their contributions to the City. Harmons joins the list of many distinguished corporate citizens,” said Gary Whatcott, South Jordan City Manager.

Harmons will be presented with the Corporate Citizen Award on Monday, June 27 from 12-1:30 p.m. at the Gale Center Museum, 10300 South Beckstead Lane in South Jordan.

Harmons has two locations in South Jordan City.

This award has been presented to a select group of companies since 2010. Past recipients include: 2010 recipient, Fred Lampropoulos, Merit Medical; 2011 recipient, Dr. Dan Fischer, Ultradent; 2012 recipient, Don Whyte, Rio Tinto; 2013 recipient, Sam’s Club, South Jordan; 2014 recipient, The Boyer Company; 2015 recipient, Jerry Seiner and the Jerry Seiner Auto Group.
