THE BOYER COMPANY WINS SOUTH JORDAN CORPORATE CITIZEN AWARD

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – January 9, 2014

The Boyer Company, a Salt Lake City based full-service real estate development firm was awarded the 2014 Corporate Citizen Award from the City of South Jordan on Wednesday, January 8, 2014. The award was presented during a luncheon held at the Boyer Company's headquarters. South Jordan Mayor Dave Alvord presented the award to Roger Boyer, the Chairman and Founder of The Boyer Company and Jake Boyer, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Boyer Company.

"The Boyer Company has been an integral partner in South Jordan's growth with projects like the South Jordan Towne Center where City Hall is located adjacent and the District and District North Projects, and over 2,100 dwelling units developed" said Economic Development Director Brian Preece. Mayor Alvord commended The Boyer Company for their partnership with South Jordan City on community projects, and noted that his dental practice was located in a Boyer Company development.

The Boyer Company is one of the largest full-service real estate development firms in the western United States. They have developed over four decades over 250 properties in 20 different states, including 30,000,000 square feet of commercial space since 1972. Their portfolio includes government, medical, office, retail, and build-to-suit projects. In addition, they own and manage more than 15,000,000 feet of commercial space. Previous winners of the South Jordan Corporate Citizen award include Sam's Club in 2013, Rio Tinto in 2012, Ultradent in 2011, and Merit Medical in 2010.
