South Jordan City Council Releases an Informational Video about Mulligans Golf and Games

SOUTH JORDAN, UT– October 24, 2014

The South Jordan City Council released an informational video on Mulligans Golf and Games on the city’s website. The four minute video features the Mayor, City Council and local residents describing options for the future of Mulligans and discusses the official Mulligans survey.

The City of South Jordan contracted a survey and data analysis company; Y² Analytics to conduct focus groups and a scientific survey to gather data on what the residents of South Jordan would like to see for the future of Mulligans. The official survey will be conducted in fall and winter.

“We produced a video outlining some options for Mulligans. I want to hear from the residents about what they want for the future of Mulligans. I give my personal assurance this survey will be fair, honest and unbiased,” said South Jordan City Mayor David Alvord.

South Jordan City Mayor, David Alvord wrote a personal letter to accompany the video. The letter was recently sent to every resident in South Jordan City.
