South Jordan City Police Department Hosts Annual Awards Ceremony

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – On Wed., June 8 the South Jordan Police Department held their annual Police Department Awards Ceremony. The ceremony is held each year following National Police Week and is a time for the officers to be recognized for their work over the past year.

“I’m proud of all the hard work our staff and officers dedicate. This ceremony is a great opportunity to acknowledge them and all they do to protect the community. This is one small gesture to show our appreciation.” said South Jordan City Police Chief, Jeff Carr.

Some of the awards given out that evening include:

The Police Officer of the Year Award was given to Jacob Werner; Employee of the Year was given to Jodi Skogg; Supervisor of the Year Award was given to Case Winder. Five Life-Saving medals were given to police officers, two Distinguished Service medals, two Distinguished Unit citations, a Distinguished Career citation, six Chief’s Awards, and a Rising Talent Award.
