Fire Restrictions for South Jordan City

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – Fire restrictions are in place for South Jordan City. The danger of fire in wildland urban interface areas is expected to be high this season in and around the City of South Jordan. Fireworks, lighters, matches or other items and/or devices that produce an open flame are strictly prohibited within the natural vegetation border of the Bingham Creek and Jordan Parkway open space and trail systems, except in picnic areas or with a permit issued from the city.

In addition, the discharge of fireworks are prohibited in the following areas:

- Within 200 feet of the natural vegetation border of the Bingham Creek and Jordan River Parkway open space and trail systems.
- Within 25 feet of undeveloped wildland and containing dry vegetation including brush, grasses, weeds, or other combustible vegetation.
