South Jordan City Fire Department Hosts Groundbreaking Ceremony for New Fire Station

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – South Jordan City Fire Department will host a Groundbreaking ceremony for their new Fire Station 63. The new fire station located at 10451 South 1055 West, is a 12,645 sq. foot, two-story building that includes two apparatus bays for a fire engine and ambulance, a training room, community safe haven site, AED, workout facility and can house up to seven firefighters at full capacity. Fire Station 63 will primarily cover the eastern portions of South Jordan City but will be available to respond to any location in the city and surrounding areas as needed.

“We’re looking forward to the completion of this new fire station. This new station will provide greater service to the residents of South Jordan and the surrounding cities,” said South Jordan City Fire Chief, Andy Butler.
