South Jordan City Celebrates the Gale Center Museum 10-Year Anniversary

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – On Saturday, July 30, South Jordan City will celebrate the Gale Center of History & Culture’s 10-year Anniversary. Residents and non-residents are invited to join the festivities which include: food, pioneer games, pioneer stories, music, petting zoo and giveaways.

South Jordan City’s Gale Center will also unveil a newly remodeled mining exhibit to the public at the anniversary celebration. This exhibit features a replica town that once operated at the heart of the community’s rich mining history.

The Gale Center is an interactive, educational city museum committed to preserving Americana—offering historical and contemporary glimpses of the various culture, geography, art, and folklore that the South Jordan community has to offer.
