South Jordan City Fire Department Battalion Chief Brian Allred Retires after 21 Years of Service

SOUTH JORDAN, UT – South Jordan City Fire Battalion Chief, Brian Allred retired from the South Jordan Fire Department after 21 years of service.

“Brian has been an outstanding member of the South Jordan City Fire Department. He is always supportive and willing to offer suggestions. I’ve appreciated his leadership, expertise and guidance. Brian has not only helped me personally, but he has certainly contributed to the success of the organization. He will be missed by the entire department,” said South Jordan Fire Chief, Andy Butler.

Chief Allred has provided the State of Utah with more than 21 years of Fire and Emergency Medical Service. In 1990, Brian began his career with the Clearfield Fire Department where he worked part-time for six years. Brian joined the Weber Fire District in 1996 where he worked for about three years, most of that time in Ogden City. Brian also worked for Life Flight from 2001-2016. When Brian came to South Jordan in 2005, he brought his experience and knowledge as a Paramedic and SWAT Medic with him. Brian spent 12 years with the South Jordan Fire Department where he was promoted from Paramedic to Captain to Battalion Chief.
