SAM'S CLUB EARNS SOUTH JORDAN COPORATE CITIZEN AWARD FOR 2013
SOUTH JORDAN, UT – January 10, 2013

South Jordan Sam's Club was awarded the 2013 Corporate Citizen award during a luncheon held at Country Inn and Suites on Wednesday, January 9, 2013. Club General Manager Melissa Lovell and Membership Manager Kathren Hargis accepted the award on behalf of the club. Sam's Club was recognized for the positive contributions to the community, including over a thousand hours of community service provided by Sam's Club employees since their opening in 2008.

"Sam's Club and its employees have stepped up to serve the City of South Jordan in a myriad of ways since joining our City" said Mayor Scott L. Osborne. "This recognition is our way of thanking them for ongoing contributions they make to our City events and programs" Mayor Osborne said.

"We are so pleased to accept this award on behalf of all 150 of employees who work to make our Sam's Club great each day. We look forward to continuing to work to give back to the South Jordan community" Lovell said. Previous South Jordan Corporate Citizen award winners include Ultradent and Merit Medical.
